And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Truth. Matthew 8:8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. Crumbs From The Master's Table A Sermon by Rev. Grant H. Odhner How does it strike you, when you hear the story about Jesus and the Gentile woman from Canaan, when He ignores her. She replied, "Yes, Lord; but even the dogs feed on the crumbs which fall from their master's table." Just as stunning was her reply. It is as if she does not care about anything other than that this Prophet can help her daughter and she will not be dissuaded. As darkness creeps over the land it is good to bring to remembrance the basics of our faith. Upon loosing my dog Moshe to cancer, after prayer, I made a decision to get a puppy. It had been 40 years, the years of the Wilderness wanderings, since I had a puppy. What lessons would the Lord Jesus have in store? First Lov, Crumbs From The Masters Table.
